

DEATH OF JOHN M. FOLTZ

AGED WINSLOW TOWNSHIP PIONEER.

Funeral Held Friday and Burial Made in the Reynoldsville Cemetery.

John Martin Foltz, one of the pioneer settlers of Winslow township, died Wednesday afternoon, August 3rd, in the Adrian hospital, following an operation for peritonitis. The body was brought to his late home in Winslow township Wednesday and funeral services were held at that place Friday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Freeman M. Reddinger, of Falls Creek. Interment was made in the Reynoldsville cemetery.

Mr. Foltz was sixty-nine years old, having been born in Westmoreland county in the year 1841, the son of John and Susanna Foltz. When but five years old he came with his parents to Jefferson county and has resided here ever since. In 1853 he was united in marriage to Miss Barbara Elizabeth Deemer. Twelve children blessed the union, of whom eleven survive, as follows: James, Peter, Minnie, John, Alice, Henry, Netta, Anna, Nora, Grover and Harry Foltz. Six of the above sons and daughters reside at the Winslow township home. Besides these, a widow, fifteen grandchildren, three brothers and one sister mourn his demise.

Mr. Foltz was known to practically all the Winslow township people, his long residence and reputation for integrity gaining for him the respect of all.

Fine New Catalogue.

The illustrated catalog of the Clarion State Normal School has just come from the printer's hands, and is a handsomely illustrated edition. The frontispiece is a beautiful panoramic view of the entire plant of seven buildings. In addition to this there are fine individual pictures of the Chapel, Seminary Hall, Navarro Hall, and Music Hall, all in rich photographic brown color. Pictures of the athletic teams, the Principal's office, and Manual Training students at work adorn its pages. Perhaps the most attractive pictures are scenes from the Campus Pageant, that unusually attractive event of commencement week. These scenes represent a Roman Holiday and in detail illustrate "A Gladiatorial Combat," "The Barbarians who Sacked Rome," "Roman Girls Rejoicing," "Children Before the Emperor," "Worshipping Vesta," etc. The catalog also contains a description of the four years' course of study which will be started at the opening of the Fall term. The volume is indeed an attractive one.

Took All His Money.

Often all a man earns goes to doctors or for medicines, to cure a stomach, liver or kidney trouble that Dr. King's New Life Pills would quickly cure at slight cost. Best for dyspepsia, indigestion, biliousness, constipation, jaundice, malaria and debility. 25c at Stoke & Felcht Drug Co. store.

The Library of the Lack Haven State Normal school is well selected, accurately catalogued and the books are easily accessible. The library rooms are said to be handsomer than those of any other school library in the state. The remarkable success of the school's debating team in the Inter-Normal debates is due, in a large measure, to the library. Write for the school's handsome catalogue.

DAUGHTER OF A PIONEER

MRS. SARAH PATTON DIED SUDDENLY.

She Was a Sister of G. W. and Ira Fuller and Highly Esteemed By Her Friends.

Mrs. Sarah Patton, widow of Robert Patton, died suddenly at her home in Prescottville at 4:40 Wednesday afternoon, August 3rd, 1910, from heart failure induced by acute indigestion. She was 74 years, 5 months and 28 days old at time of her demise and the greater part of her life had been spent near the spot where she died. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Fuller, pioneer settlers in Winslow township, having been born on the old Fuller homestead February 5, 1836. She was married to Robert Patton October 24, 1854, and eleven children came of the union, of whom three, with the father, preceded Mrs. Patton to the grave.

The eight surviving sons and daughters are: John F. Patton, of Oklahoma state, Mrs. E. C. Boyle, of Wilkesburg, I. W. Patton, of Oklahoma, Samuel F. Patton address unknown, Joseph Patton, of Rathmel, William J. Patton, of Williamstown, W. Va., Mrs. James G. Pentz, of Corapolis, and George B. Patton, of Pittsburgh. Of these, Mrs. E. C. Boyle, William J., and George B. Patton were here from a distance to attend the funeral. Mrs. Patton is also survived by two brothers, George W. Fuller, of Reynoldsville, Ira Fuller, of Brookville, and one sister Mrs. Henry Stevenson, of Sandy Valley.

The funeral services were held at the Prescottville Baptist church Sunday afternoon, conducted by Dr. A. J. Meek, pastor of the Baptist church, and burial was made in the Beechwoods cemetery beside the body of the deceased's husband, who died Nov. 15, 1884. Hughes & Fleming were funeral directors.

Mrs. Patton had lived at various periods of her life in Beechwoods and in Indiana, but her girlhood and old age were spent near Prescottville, where she was well known and held in the highest esteem. She was an active member of the Presbyterian church of Reynoldsville.

"In the Shadow of the Chair."

A man who was tried for his life has written a powerful story of which the above is the title. Only two men living know who wrote it, so carefully has the author concealed his identity, and yet in telling of his terrible ordeal he gives a picture so vivid that one feels that he has held back nothing. It is a wonderful story and you should not fail to read it in the beautiful monthly magazine which is free with The Pittsburgh Dispatch Sunday, August 14. The stories in this handsome magazine are all by the best writers of the day. Some of the other good ones are: "The Breach," by Mabel Herbert Urner; "The Discoverer," by Charles Belmont Davis; Cinderella of the Stage Door," by Grace Sartwell Mason; "Johnny McDonald, the Two of Him," by Dave King. "The Man in Black" is the title of a strong serial, the first installment of which will be in the issue of August 14. It will be continued in the regular edition of the paper. You will like the magazine. It's free, but to be sure of getting it leave your order with the newsdealer early for the Dispatch of August 14.
